

PEOPLE OF THE PHILIPPINES, PLAINTIFF-APPELLEE, VS. ABUBAKAR ASIL, ALIAS ABUBAKAR PONGA, ACCUSED-APPELLANT.

G.R. No. L-32102. February 10, 1986

Ponente: AQUINO, C.J.

Read online (full-text search, related cases, audio case brief): <https://batas.org/library/f809b4bb0839/>

AQUINO, C.J.:

Abubakar Asil (Asil Ponga) appealed from the decision of the Court of First Instance of Cotabato, convicting him of murder, sentencing him to reclusion perpetua and ordering him to indemnify solidarily the heirs of Arturo Hofer in the amount of P12,000.

The prosecution's evidence discloses that in the early morning of May 7, 1968, while Arturo Hofer, 53, a resident and councilor of Balabagan, Lanao del Sur was going to board a passenger launch at the wharf in Cotabato City, intending to return to Balabagan, he was shot several times by a group of persons who fled after the shooting. Hofer fell into the water.

He died due to massive hemorrhage caused by multiple gunshot wounds which destroyed his vital organs (Exh. A and C). He sustained three wounds in the chest and two wounds on his left arm. His liver was slashed. His left ventricle was ruptured.

Asil Ponga or Abubakar Asil was identified by the eyewitnesses, Luminog Dimaporo, 12, and Corazon Oasan as one of the assailants. Dimaporo executed a sworn statement dated August 24, 1968 regarding the killing (Exh. E).

Motive for the shooting was revenge. Hofer had sued one Akob Ontal for ejectment from a certain parcel of land. Hofer won the case. Moncado Ontal, a member of Akob's family, was killed in connection with the land dispute. Isabel Hofer, a niece of Arturo, identified the father of the accused, as having received money from Mamandas Ontal in the Balabagan bakery sometime in June, 1968 after Hofer was killed (See Exh. D).

Accused Asil denied any complicity in the crime. He declared that he was walking behind Patrolman Radsak Dadang along Bonifacio Street in Cotabato City, going in the direction of the wharf, when he heard a volley of gunshots. He proceeded to the wharf. He found a crowd gathered near Hofer's dead body. The trial court regarded Asil's alibi as too flimsy to merit any consideration.

His counsel de oficio contends that the trial court erred in not taking note of the lies and contradictions in the testimonies of the eyewitnesses and in not giving weight to appellant's alibi.

The Solicitor General in his brief conscientiously answered appellant's contentions. The trial court observed that the eyewitnesses had no grudge against the accused. They did not know him before the shooting. There was no reason to doubt their credibility.

We hold that the accused is guilty beyond reasonable doubt of murder. There was alevosia or treachery because the defenseless victim was shot from behind without any risk to his assailants.

WHEREFORE, the trial court's judgment is affirmed with the modification that the indemnity is raised to P30,000. Costs de oficio.

SO ORDERED.

Concepcion, Jr., (Chairman), Abad Santos, Escolin, Cuevas, and Alampay, JJ., concur.

ABOUT BATAS.ORG

Study smarter at BATAS.org

The Philippine bar review and law-school companion built around how your brain actually remembers.

The complete Philippine law library - free for everyone.

More than 100,000 Supreme Court decisions, Republic Acts, and executive issuances - full-text searchable, browsable by category and year, and always free. No paywall, no login. This PDF came from it.

Audio case-brief lectures.

Any decision becomes a podcast-style lecture - facts, issues, ruling, and doctrine - with read-along highlighting and a hands-free presentation mode. Study while commuting, working out, or resting your eyes.

Bar review built on the science of memory.

Complete, sequenced courses for all eight bar subjects, narrated like podcasts and reinforced with retrieval practice and spaced review - the study techniques with the strongest evidence behind them.

The full law-school curriculum.

One subscription unlocks the entire J.D. curriculum - every subject, every lesson, with your progress tracked down to the paragraph so you can pick up exactly where you left off, on any device.

Mock exams that tell you where you stand.

Timed multiple-choice exams graded instantly, with per-subject score breakdowns and focus suggestions that point you at your weakest topics first.

A study planner that keeps you on pace.

Set your schedule and BATAS tells you every day whether you are on track for bar day - and exactly which lesson to take next.

Start free at <https://batas.org>

The law library is free forever - and your first lesson is one click away.

The text of this document is an official public record and remains in the public domain. Formatting, presentation, and compilation © 2026 batas.org.

Downloaded free from the batas.org Law Library. Share it freely - the library is free for every law student, bar reviewee, and practitioner.