WHEREAS, this Government, in line with its objective of providing good governance, aims to provide a just and expeditious administration of justice;

WHEREAS, in order to ensure and maintain expeditious disposition of cases appealed to the Office of the President (OP), considering the volume of cases pending before the OP, particularly appeals from the Housing and Land Use Regulatory Board (HLURB), it is necessary to designate senior officials to conduct a review of these cases and to authorize them to sign resolutions, decisions, or orders relative thereto in order to significantly reduce the backlog; and

WHEREAS, under Section 17, Administrative Order No. 22, series of 2011, where exigencies arise, the Executive Secretary may temporarily designate the Deputy Executive Secretary for Legal Affairs (DESLA) or any Deputy Executive Secretary to decide and sign decisions, resolutions or orders in appealed cases;
