

THE UNITED STATES, COMPLAINANT AND APPELLEE, VS. APOLONIO MANAUL ET AL., DEFENDANTS AND APPELLANTS.

G.R. No. 1987. March 27, 1905

Ponente: MAPA, J.

Read online (full-text search, related cases, audio case brief): <https://batas.org/library/g-r-no-1987/>

MAPA, J.:

The defendants were charged with the crime of lesiones graves for having cut off both ears of Placida Gonzalez on the evening of June 30, 1903. The judge below found them guilty of this crime and sentenced them to six years' prison correccional, and the costs.

The judge considered the case as falling within article 416 of the Penal Code, although he does not say so in express terms. The penalty which he imposed on the defendants is that provided for in paragraph 2 of said article. This penalty is the one which provides for the acts for which the defendant is prosecuted, because the loss of the two ears has caused the deafness of the injured party. The penalty was imposed in its maximum degree because the court below took into consideration the existence of the aggravating circumstances in said crime of having been committed at night, through a promise, recompense, or reward, with the use of superior force, and at the house of the injured party.

We agree with the findings of law and of fact in the judgment below and also with the consideration of the aggravating circumstances, except the last one, viz, that the crime was committed at the house of the injured party, because it appears clearly proven that the crime was committed outside of her house, since the defendants made her come out of her house in order to consummate their crime.

With this modification we affirm the judgment below, crediting the defendants with one-half of the time which they have been in prison as detention prisoners, with the costs in this instance. So ordered.

Arellano, C. J., Torres, Johnson, and Carson, JJ., concur.

ABOUT BATAS.ORG

Study smarter at BATAS.org

The Philippine bar review and law-school companion built around how your brain actually remembers.

The complete Philippine law library - free for everyone.

More than 100,000 Supreme Court decisions, Republic Acts, and executive issuances - full-text searchable, browsable by category and year, and always free. No paywall, no login. This PDF came from it.

Audio case-brief lectures.

Any decision becomes a podcast-style lecture - facts, issues, ruling, and doctrine - with read-along highlighting and a hands-free presentation mode. Study while commuting, working out, or resting your eyes.

Bar review built on the science of memory.

Complete, sequenced courses for all eight bar subjects, narrated like podcasts and reinforced with retrieval practice and spaced review - the study techniques with the strongest evidence behind them.

The full law-school curriculum.

One subscription unlocks the entire J.D. curriculum - every subject, every lesson, with your progress tracked down to the paragraph so you can pick up exactly where you left off, on any device.

Mock exams that tell you where you stand.

Timed multiple-choice exams graded instantly, with per-subject score breakdowns and focus suggestions that point you at your weakest topics first.

A study planner that keeps you on pace.

Set your schedule and BATAS tells you every day whether you are on track for bar day - and exactly which lesson to take next.

Start free at <https://batas.org>

The law library is free forever - and your first lesson is one click away.

The text of this document is an official public record and remains in the public domain. Formatting, presentation, and compilation © 2026 batas.org.

Downloaded free from the batas.org Law Library. Share it freely - the library is free for every law student, bar reviewee, and practitioner.