

THE UNITED STATES, PLAINTIFF AND APPELLEE, VS. SY VINCO, DEFENDANT AND APPELLANT.

G.R. No. 2126. September 25, 1905

Ponente: CARSON, J.

Read online (full-text search, related cases, audio case brief): <https://batas.org/library/g-r-no-2126/>

CARSON, J.:

The appellant in this case was found guilty in the Court of First Instance of Cebu of the crime of lesiones graves (grave injuries) as denned and penalized in paragraph 4 of article 416 of the Penal Code.

It appears that in the course of a quarrel between the accused, Sy Vinco, and the complaining witness, Ong Suico, the former stabbed the latter with penknife, inflicting seven wounds, from which the injured man did not recover so as to be able to attend to his ordinary avocations for a period of a little more than thirty days.

It was also proven that the complaining witness had provoked the quarrel, both by the use of insulting and obscene language and further, by assaulting his adversary, seizing him with his hands and knocking his head against a wall.

On this state of facts the trial court found the existence of the extenuating circumstance set out in paragraph 5 of article 9 of the Penal Code, holding that the wounds were inflicted in vindication of a grave offense against the accused. We think, however, that in this case the finding of the existence of an extenuating circumstance should have been based upon the provisions of paragraph 1 of said article, the wounds having been inflicted in self-defense, but the accused not being entirely exempt from responsibility, because the injuries inflicted and the measures adopted to resist the unlawful aggression against his person went far beyond those reasonably necessary for his protection.

The penalty imposed by the trial court is in strict accord with this view of the case and, modified in accordance with the foregoing principles, the judgment and the sentence appealed from is affirmed, with costs against the appellant. So ordered.

Arellano, C. J., Torres, Mapa, and Johnson, JJ., concur.

ABOUT BATAS.ORG

Study smarter at BATAS.org

The Philippine bar review and law-school companion built around how your brain actually remembers.

The complete Philippine law library - free for everyone.

More than 100,000 Supreme Court decisions, Republic Acts, and executive issuances - full-text searchable, browsable by category and year, and always free. No paywall, no login. This PDF came from it.

Audio case-brief lectures.

Any decision becomes a podcast-style lecture - facts, issues, ruling, and doctrine - with read-along highlighting and a hands-free presentation mode. Study while commuting, working out, or resting your eyes.

Bar review built on the science of memory.

Complete, sequenced courses for all eight bar subjects, narrated like podcasts and reinforced with retrieval practice and spaced review - the study techniques with the strongest evidence behind them.

The full law-school curriculum.

One subscription unlocks the entire J.D. curriculum - every subject, every lesson, with your progress tracked down to the paragraph so you can pick up exactly where you left off, on any device.

Mock exams that tell you where you stand.

Timed multiple-choice exams graded instantly, with per-subject score breakdowns and focus suggestions that point you at your weakest topics first.

A study planner that keeps you on pace.

Set your schedule and BATAS tells you every day whether you are on track for bar day - and exactly which lesson to take next.

Start free at <https://batas.org>

The law library is free forever - and your first lesson is one click away.

The text of this document is an official public record and remains in the public domain. Formatting, presentation, and compilation © 2026 batas.org.

Downloaded free from the batas.org Law Library. Share it freely - the library is free for every law student, bar reviewee, and practitioner.