The Court having regularly acquired jurisdiction of the above-entitled cause submitted lay "both parties for decision, after consideration thereof "by the Court upon the record, its decision and order for judgment having been filed on the 24th day of April, A. D. nineteen hundred and thirty-four;

By virtue thereof it is hereby adjudged and decreed that the orders and decision appealed from by all the appellants are set aside and the record remand 3d to the court of origin, with the following instructions which must "be strictly complied with, to wit:

1. All the appellants shall be allowed to question the validity of the alleged transfers, conveyances and donations in favor of Salvador Fimalino, Antonio de Habana and of the appellee Jose Morente, respectively, permitting them to present such material and pertinent evidence which they may desire to offer; and the appellee shall be permitted to present all the material and pertinent evidence of the defense, permitting them to use the evidence already appearing in the record;
2. All the appellants shall be permitted to present material and pertinent evidence as to whether or not the
