GUERRERO, J.:

Petitioner Motorola Philippines Inc., through counsel, has submitted a Manifestation dated April 20, 1983 manifesting "that the case entitled 'Bella T. Ramirez, et al. vs. Motorola Philippines, Inc.' docketed as Civil Case No. Pq-9256-p before Branch III of the Regional Trial Court of Rizal, Pasay City has been settled amicably by the parties through a Compromise Agreement dated March 26, 1982, copy of which is herewith attached as Annex "A". In view thereof, this instant petition for certiorari which has been filed by petitioner purposely to question the restraining order issued in said case, has become moot and academic."

Attached to the Manifestation is a xerox copy of the Compromise Agreement which reads as follows:

COMPROMISE AGREEMENT

THE PARTIES, assisted by their respective counsels, to this Honorable Court respectfully state:

- After due consideration of the facts and issues involved in the above-entitled case, the parties have arrived at an understanding to have this case settled amicably;
- The parties hereby withdraw and/or dismiss their claims and counterclaims against each other in the above-entitled case;
- Said dismissal shall be final and with prejudice; and
- The parties likewise renounce and waive all their present and future claims and counterclaims against each other in connection with and/or arising from their transaction and/or incident subject-matter of their case which they may have against each other.

PRAYER

WHEREFORE, the parties respectfully pray that the foregoing compromise be approved and that judgment be rendered in accordance with the terms thereof.
