

REPUBLIC OF THE PHILIPPINES (DIRECTOR OF LANDS),
PETITIONER, VS. IGLESIA NI CRISTO AND JUDGE DOMINGO M.
ANGELES, BRANCH I, COURT OF FIRST INSTANCE OF CAMARINES NORTE, RESPONDENTS.

G.R. No. 61145. February 20, 1984

Ponente: AQUINO, J.

Read online (full-text search, related cases, audio case brief): <https://batas.org/library/g-r-no-61145/>

AQUINO, J.:

This case is about the same issue which was resolved against the Iglesia ni Cristo and is, therefore, res judicata: that, as a corporation sole, (1) it is not entitled to register lands under section 48 (b) of the Public Land Law, which refers only to Filipino citizens, and (2) that it is disqualified under section 11, Article XIV of the Constitution to hold alienable public lands except by lease. (Republic vs. Villanueva, G. R. No. 55289, June 29, 1982, 114 SCRA 875; Republic vs. Gonong, G. R. No. 56025, November 25, 1982, 118 SCRA 729; Republic vs. Court of Appeals, G. R. No. 59447 and Republic vs. Cendaña, G. R. No. 60188, December 27, 1982, 119 SCRA 449 and Republic vs. Court of First Instance of Nueva Ecija, L-35273, July 25, 1983, 123 SCRA 516.)

The Iglesia on November 6, 1976 filed an application for confirmation and registration of its title over two parcels of land located at Barrio Calabaca and the poblacion of Capalonga, Camarines Norte with areas of 300 and 599 square meters used as sites of its chapels.

The town lot was purchased by the Iglesia on May 30, 1955 from Josefina Diezmo who in turn purchased it from Esteban Arcea who had used the lot for residential purposes since 1920. The realty taxes had been paid up to the time Diezmo possessed the lot.

The Calabaca lot was purchased by the Iglesia on July 18, 1973 from Basilio Parale who inherited it from his father Simeon. It used to be coconut land. Simeon possessed the lot since 1920 and used it for residential purposes. He paid realty taxes on the land.

The Iglesia and its predecessors claimed to have actual, public, peaceful, continuous and uninterrupted possession of the two lots in the concept of an owner for more than thirty years preceding the filing of the application. No realty taxes were paid by the Iglesia because it is an exempt corporation.

The Director of Lands opposed the application. The trial court in its decision of April 30, 1982 granted it, confirmed the title of the applicant and ordered the lands registered "in the name of Iglesia ni Cristo, with its Executive Minister Eraño G. Manalo, as corporation sole, with office and postal address at corner Central and Don Mariano Marcos Avenues, Diliman, Quezon City, Metro Manila".

The Republic appealed under Republic Act No. 5440 in relation to Rule 45 of the Rules of Court. The trial court found, and it is a matter of judicial notice, that the Iglesia "is a duly registered corporation sole" (Exhs. E and F). As the application is for confirmation of an imperfect or incomplete title, that application is necessarily subject to the following provisions of the Public Land Law, Commonwealth Act No. 141:

"SEC. 48. The following described citizens of the Philippines, occupying lands of the public domain or claiming to own any such lands or an interest therein, but whose titles have not been perfected or completed, may apply to the Court of First Instance of the province where the land is located for confirmation of their claims and the issuance of a certificate of title therefor, under the Land Registration Act, to wit:

(a) x x x x x x x x.

(b) Those who by themselves or through their predecessors in interest have been in open, continuous, exclusive, and notorious possession and occupation of agricultural lands of the public domain, under a bona fide claim of acquisition of ownership, for at least thirty years immediately preceding the filing of the application for confirmation of title except when prevented by war or force majeure. These shall be conclusively presumed to have performed all the conditions essential to a Government grant and shall be entitled to a certificate of title under the provisions of this chapter."

(c) x x x x x x x x."

"SEC. 49. No person claiming title to lands of the public domain not in possession of the qualifications specified in the last preceding section may apply for the benefits of this chapter."

The Iglesia is not a Filipino citizen. The lands in question are still public lands until registered (Heirs of Pelagio Zara vs. Director of Lands, 127 Phil. 8). Moreover, under the aforecited section 11 of Article XIV, it is disqualified as a corporation to hold lands of the public domain except by lease. (Manila Electric Company vs. Castro-Bartolome, L-49623, June 29, 1982, 114 SCRA 799; Director of Lands vs. Lood, L-32521, September 2, 1983, 124 SCRA 460).

The Iglesia in its appellee's brief has not shown that it is not covered by the said constitutional and statutory provisions. Its statement on page 2 of its brief that it "is not a religious corporation" when its application is belied by the facts.

It contends that it is entitled to register the lands as a trustee. This contention is erroneous. The unarguable fact is that it is a corporation sole governed by section 109 et sequitur of the Corporation Code. It did not apply for registration as a trustee.

As stated at the outset, the matter is subject to the governing principle of stare decisis et non quieta movere (follow past precedents and do not disturb what has been settled).

WHEREFORE, the trial court's decision is reverse and set aside and the Iglesia's application is dismissed with costs against it.

SO ORDERED.

Concepcion, Jr., Guerrero, Abad Santos, De Castro, and Escolin, JJ., concur.

Makasiar, J., (Chairman), reiterates his dissent in the cited cases.

ABOUT BATAS.ORG

Study smarter at BATAS.org

The Philippine bar review and law-school companion built around how your brain actually remembers.

The complete Philippine law library - free for everyone.

More than 100,000 Supreme Court decisions, Republic Acts, and executive issuances - full-text searchable, browsable by category and year, and always free. No paywall, no login. This PDF came from it.

Audio case-brief lectures.

Any decision becomes a podcast-style lecture - facts, issues, ruling, and doctrine - with read-along highlighting and a hands-free presentation mode. Study while commuting, working out, or resting your eyes.

Bar review built on the science of memory.

Complete, sequenced courses for all eight bar subjects, narrated like podcasts and reinforced with retrieval practice and spaced review - the study techniques with the strongest evidence behind them.

The full law-school curriculum.

One subscription unlocks the entire J.D. curriculum - every subject, every lesson, with your progress tracked down to the paragraph so you can pick up exactly where you left off, on any device.

Mock exams that tell you where you stand.

Timed multiple-choice exams graded instantly, with per-subject score breakdowns and focus suggestions that point you at your weakest topics first.

A study planner that keeps you on pace.

Set your schedule and BATAS tells you every day whether you are on track for bar day - and exactly which lesson to take next.

Start free at <https://batas.org>

The law library is free forever - and your first lesson is one click away.

The text of this document is an official public record and remains in the public domain. Formatting, presentation, and compilation © 2026 batas.org.

Downloaded free from the batas.org Law Library. Share it freely - the library is free for every law student, bar reviewee, and practitioner.